INVITATION

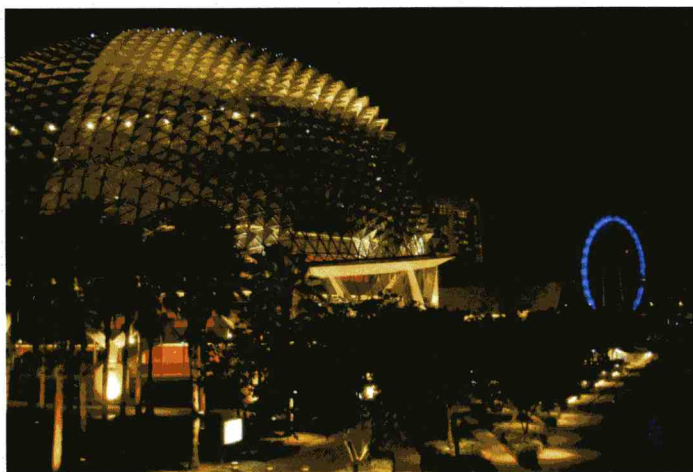

Dear Colleagues,

On behalf of the Department of Anatomy (Yong Loo Lin School of Medicine), Singapore Neuroscience Association and Microscopy Society (Singapore), we warmly invite you to the Anatomical Sciences and Cell Biology Conference to be held in Singapore in May 2010.

In this modern era, Anatomy is no longer just a morphological science. Anatomical sciences integrated with cell biology encompass not only the structure and function of the body, but also neuroscience, developmental biology, molecular biology, biochemistry and more such as toxinology and cancer biology. It will be a great opportunity to keep abreast with the fast pace of research that is taking place in these diverse fields. A part of the conference will be devoted to the use of microscopy techniques for histological and cytological analyses. Besides research, a major focus will be on medical education, especially with regard to exploring new horizons for the teaching of human anatomy. The Conference will act as a platform for the exchange of knowledge and information on Anatomical Sciences and Cell Biology, and a meeting place where academics and researchers can discuss future trends. Eminent researchers and educationists from Australia, Canada, China, Europe, Japan, New Zealand and USA, will showcase their work.

We sincerely hope that you will participate in this international conference, and look forward to seeing you in Singapore in May 2010.
